HIRING YOUR CHILDREN

CHECKLIST FOR HIRING YOUR MINOR CHILD

You can save money on your taxes by hiring your children. For tax year 2011, your child under 18 can earn up to $5,800 working in your business before any tax needs to be paid on the earned income. This can be increased to $10,800 if a $5,000 traditional IRA is purchased. While your child earns tax free income, you save tax dollars by deducting the wages paid. In the 25% tax bracket, for example, $2,700 in Federal tax plus $1,526 in self-employment tax is saved by paying a wage of $10,800 to your minor child.

To take advantage of these tax savings, you must be careful to make sure you take the following steps to prove you are entitled to the deduction.

- The work must actually be done.
- The work must be related to your business.
- The child must be capable of doing the work.
- The amount paid for work done must be reasonable.
- The amount must be distinguishable from an allowance.

- You must keep careful written records of payments made and duties performed and file all of the necessary paperwork as described below:

- □ Make a written employment agreement between your business and your child. See Employment Agreement. The agreement should contain a description of the services to be rendered, the amount and timing of compensation, the length of employment and signatures of both parties.
- Obtain an employer identification number from your state. See the list of State Departments of Revenue. You may call or visit the website listed to obtain the form necessary to file for the number. The IRS website links to the various State websites if you choose state link from the Employer ID page.
- □ Verify compliance with immigration laws. See Form I-9. Keep this form as a part of your records for at least three years following the date of hire.
- □ Have each child file Form W-4 to determine withholding. See Form W-4. Keep this form on file for each employee. If you are going to pay your child an annual amount under $5,800, and your child has no other unearned income, you need only to indicate the child is exempt from withholding on line 7 of W-4.
- □ Keep time cards on file with hours worked as determined by the signed Employment Agreement. Your children under 18 are exempt from FICA and Medicare tax. If the child is exempt from withholding, you will not have to deduct anything from the paycheck. You can use the payroll sheet as a time/summary sheet to enter the checks you have made out. Remember to pay them at regular timely intervals. It would also be wise to keep a daily listing of hours worked and duties performed.
- File a Quarterly Federal withholding return. Form 941 will be mailed to you every quarter after you get your identification number unless you are invited to file annually on Form 944. Make sure you file the 941 even if you did not pay wages or withhold any taxes. If you are a quarterly filer, they will be expecting it.
- □ File a State quarterly withholding return if required by your state. You should receive information when you file for your State identification number.
- File W-2's for each child, and file Form W-3. The IRS will mail you a W-2 kit at the end of the year.
 One copy needs to be filed with the Social Security Administration, one copy with your state if required, employee retains a copy, and the employer retains one.
- File an annual federal unemployment (FUTA) return. This must be filed on Form 940 by January 31 each year. The IRS sends a Form out to all employers to file. Your child under age 21 is not subject to this tax, but file the Form claiming an exemption on line 2.
- File a State reconciliation of tax withheld if required. You should be contacted if your state requires an annual reconciliation.

Forms in this kit are current as of 1-1-11. Updated federal Forms can be ordered by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM.

VERIFY COMPLIANCE WITH IMMIGRATION LAWS -- FORM I-9

Instructions

Read all instructions carefully before completing this form.

Anti-Discrimination Notice. It is illegal to discriminate against any individual (other than an alien not authorized to work in the United States) in hiring, discharging, or recruiting or referring for a fee because of that individual's national origin or citizenship status. It is illegal to discriminate against work-authorized individuals. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because the documents presented have a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination. For more information, call the Office of Special Counsel for Immigration Related Unfair Employment Practices at 1-800-255-8155.

What Is the Purpose of This Form?

The purpose of this form is to document that each new employee (both citizen and noncitizen) hired after November 6, 1986, is authorized to work in the United States.

When Should Form I-9 Be Used?

All employees (citizens and noncitizens) hired after November 6, 1986, and working in the United States must complete Form I-9.

Filling Out Form I-9

Section 1, Employee

This part of the form must be completed no later than the time of hire, which is the actual beginning of employment. Providing the Social Security Number is voluntary, except for employees hired by employers participating in the USCIS Electronic Employment Eligibility Verification Program (E-Verify). The employer is responsible for ensuring that Section 1 is timely and properly completed.

Noncitizen nationals of the United States are persons born in American Samoa, certain former citizens of the former Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and certain children of noncitizen nationals born abroad.

Employers should note the work authorization expiration date (if any) shown in Section 1. For employees who indicate an employment authorization expiration date in Section 1, employers are required to reverify employment authorization for employment on or before the date shown. Note that some employees may leave the expiration date blank if they are aliens whose work authorization does not expire (e.g., asylees, refugees, certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia or the Republic of the Marshall Islands). For such employees, reverification does not apply unless they choose to present in Section 2 evidence of employment authorization that contains an expiration date (e.g., Employment Authorization Document (Form I-766)).

Preparer/Translator Certification

The Preparer/Translator Certification must be completed if Section 1 is prepared by a person other than the employee. A preparer/translator may be used only when the employee is unable to complete Section 1 on his or her own. However, the employee must still sign Section 1 personally.

Section 2, Employer

For the purpose of completing this form, the term "employer" means all employers including those recruiters and referrers for a fee who are agricultural associations, agricultural employers, or farm labor contractors. Employers must complete Section 2 by examining evidence of identity and employment authorization within three business days of the date employment begins. However, if an employer hires an individual for less than three business days, Section 2 must be completed at the time employment begins. Employers cannot specify which document(s) listed on the last page of Form I-9 employees present to establish identity and employment authorization. Employees may present any List A document OR a combination of a List B and a List C document.

If an employee is unable to present a required document (or documents), the employee must present an acceptable receipt in lieu of a document listed on the last page of this form. Receipts showing that a person has applied for an initial grant of employment authorization, or for renewal of employment authorization, are not acceptable. Employees must present receipts within three business days of the date employment begins and must present valid replacement documents within 90 days or other specified time.

Employers must record in Section 2:

- 1. Document title;
- 2. Issuing authority;
- 3. Document number;
- 4. Expiration date, if any; and
- 5. The date employment begins.

Employers must sign and date the certification in Section 2. Employees must present original documents. Employers may, but are not required to, photocopy the document(s) presented. If photocopies are made, they must be made for all new hires. Photocopies may only be used for the verification process and must be retained with Form I-9. Employers are still responsible for completing and retaining Form I-9. For more detailed information, you may refer to the USCIS Handbook for Employers (Form M-274). You may obtain the handbook using the contact information found under the header "USCIS Forms and Information."

Section 3, Updating and Reverification

Employers must complete Section 3 when updating and/or reverifying Form I-9. - B. If an employee is rehired within three years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee is still authorized to be employed on the same basis as previously indicated on this form (updating), complete Block B and the signature block.
- C. If an employee is rehired within three years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee's work authorization has expired or if a current employee's work authorization is about to expire (reverification), complete Block B; and:
 - Examine any document that reflects the employee is authorized to work in the United States (see List A or C);
 - 2. Record the document title, document number, and expiration date (if any) in Block C; and

EMPLOYEE'S WITHHOLDING ALLOWANCE CERTIFICATE -- FORM W-4

Form W-4 (2011)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2011 expires February 16, 2012. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $950 and includes more than $300 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations. Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you may claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 919, How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding, for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 919 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 919 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 919 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2011. See Pub. 919, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).
